It was a great gift. We had great years on primary school. We were in Science club and swimming. We swam a lot in the public swimming pool where we went to practise.

When we were older, in high school we did lot of things together: We traveled by train, we surfed on the beach, we played soccer, basketball and tennis. Now that we are in the University We are still friends and we do more things. She was my best friend then ans she is my best friend now.
